Excellent: Messer is Serbia's best employer in 2015

In Serbia the industrial gases specialist Messer has been awarded the "Best Employer of 2015" prize at the "Top Serbian Brands Awards" ceremony organised annually by "Best of Serbia". What is special about these prestigious awards in various categories is that winners in each ranking are not selected by jury but solely by the public.

The basis for the awards is a public, independent market survey, wherein companies from home and abroad are ranked according to such criteria as brand awareness, excellence in quality, outstanding business performance customer satisfaction and successes over the year. For the Serbian Messer Tehnogas, this award is a reflection of the company's intense focus on its own workers, including its investment in employees, their commitment, hard work and ongoing development. In Serbia Messer is market leader for industrial gases and employs/engages 354 employees.
