Ted Stuckey

Vice President, Brokerage Solutions

Ted Stuckey leads Nationwide Brokerage Solutions, a wholesale brokerage and market access provider. In this role, Ted is responsible for the strategy, growth, and transformation of this strategic asset.

Prior to joining Nationwide, Ted served as the Chief Growth Officer at Brown & Brown National Programs, one of the largest collections of program administrators in the U.S., where he helped to take advantage of market disruptions to launch innovative products and drive organic growth. Ted's industry experience also includes QBE, Travelers and FirstComp (now Markel) in strategy, digital, innovation, underwriting, analytics, and transformation roles.

Ted holds a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, and both a Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) and Associate in Reinsurance (ARe) designation.
