Andee Gravitt to Lead Consultant Relationship Team for Nationwide

Based on a track record of strong and strategic account management, Andee Gravitt has been named leader of the Consultant Relationship team for Nationwide Retirement Solutions®. In this role, Gravitt will drive the development of consultant relationship management strategies and support Nationwide's sales teams to help them enhance, retain and grow consultant relationships.

In her most recent role as Executive Relationship Manager at Nationwide, Gravitt served as the primary point of contact for some of the company's largest plans in the Western Region. She joined Nationwide in 2017 and previously held roles as an education leader and relationship manager with MassMutual Financial and Great-West (Empower).

"We are thrilled to have Andee in this new role," said Suzanne Ricklin, vice president of Retirement Solutions Sales and Retention at Nationwide. "She is a trusted resource to plan sponsors and consultants to bring best practice plan design, implementation and results-driven participant solutions. Her proven leadership will help elevate Nationwide Retirement Solutions to even greater success."

Andee was a member of Nationwide's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Council from 2020-2022 and is a tireless advocate for Nationwide and the retirement industry, serving in a number of leadership roles with the National Association of Defined Contribution Administrators (NAGDCA) including as an industry observer on the NAGDCA Executive Board and as vice president of the Industry Committees.

Nationwide Retirement Solutions is a business within Nationwide, a Fortune 100 company based in Columbus, Ohio that is one of the largest and strongest diversified financial services and insurance organizations in the United States. Nationwide administers nearly 34,000 retirement plans, protecting more than $192.7 billion in participant assets as of Dec. 31, 2021, and helping secure financial futures for over 2.6 million participants in the governmental 457, corporate 401(k) and not-for-profit 403(b) markets. Nationwide is committed to serving the retirement industry by doing the right thing at the right time through better participant experiences, administrative simplicity and values that translate to service.
